Invitation from the President

Dear friends and industry colleagues,

It’s a pleasure, along with our organising team, to welcome and host you at our upcoming 26th National Conference on Incontinence in association with the UroGynaecological Society of Australasia (UGSA) on the 15–18 November 2017 at the prestigious International Convention Centre Sydney.

After nearly 10 years, this year’s conference is back in Sydney and we’re bringing together a renowned group of international and national leaders presenting current research in the field of incontinence and bladder, bowel and pelvic floor dysfunction.

With key international speakers including Dr Adrian Wagg from Canada, Dr Anthony Stone from the USA, Professor Suzanne Hagen from the UK and Dr Sylvia Botros from the USA, this truly multidisciplinary event will appeal to clinicians from a variety of specialties, as well as companies seeking to showcase their products and services.

Inclusive of a broad range of workshop themes and breakfast symposiums, the four-day program promises to deliver an interesting and varied range of topics, reflecting the continued diversity in the field. You will learn something new every day; we’ll give you hands on workshops and plenty of networking opportunities to mingle with your peers.

Join me in Sydney this November, with the conference providing us with an opportunity to grow our knowledge and skills and enjoy all that Sydney has to offer.

See you in November!
